ABOUT US

Held in the heart of entertainment, Los Angeles, California, SPiN is the Olympics of talent development and marketing to top Talent Agencies, Talent Managers, and major kids Casting Directors.

Kids and parents arrive on day one and immediately begin the training and audition process. No other talent convention brings the caliber of VIP industry professionals as SPiN. It comes from Joe Lorenzo and his 23+ years of relationship building within the entertainment industry. VIP's attend SPiN because they know the young performers they come to watch are some of the best in the nation.
